Thought for the Day

The little word we did not say;
The unkind deed we did not do;
These are the things that count the most.
That make us fine, and brave and true.

A gentle word, a cheery smile,
Are things the world may see and read,
But only God looks down and knows
When we omit a bitter deed.
—Exchange.

Mr. Donald Schreiber is a popular Ocala boy who will be numbered among those finishing their college course this spring. Today Mr. Schreiber was graduated from Lehigh University, Lehigh, Penn. He has accepted a responsible position with the Lehigh Coke and By-product Co. and will enter upon his duties tomorrow.

They will be joined by their parents, Mr. and Mrs. George MacKay and sister Miss Annie MacKay, as soon as the latter recovers sufficiently from her recent operation to leave the hospital.

Rev. J. G. Glass left yesterday for Sewanee, Tenn., to spend two weeks. Mr. Glass is a member of the board of trustees of the University of the South and each year he is called to Sewanee on business connected with the position.

At the alumni banquet given last week at Stetson University, DeLand, Mr. Tom B. Stewart, who has many friends in Ocala, was toastmaster. There were over two hundred seated at the table.

The annual piano recital given by the pupils of Miss Byrd Wartmann will be held this evening at 8 o'clock at her studio, 701 Sanchez street. Friends are anticipating the evening with much pleasure.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Rentz concluded today a visit of two days to Mr. Rentz' mother, Mrs. E. P. Rentz, the former leaving for South Florida and the latter, accompanied by Miss Martha Kate Rentz, for Jacksonville, where for the present she and her little daughter are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Davis.

Prior to the arrival of his family Mr. Knight had rented the Lytle home on South Sanchez street and had it in all readiness for housekeeping when they returned.

Mr. Leon Fishel is in Baltimore visiting his wife and daughter at the home of Mrs. Fishel's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Neuhau and, his mother, Mrs. M. Fishel, who is convalescing from an operation at Johns Hopkins. Mr. Fishel will return home the last of the week and will be accompanied by his mother.

At the commencement exercises of the state university, a correspondent to an exchange had the following to say of a recent visitor to Ocala: Mr. Phil S. May, a very pleasant speaker, was delegated the distinction to give the class history, and well did he perform this service. Mr. May pictured the campus in 1908, when all the activities of the university were carried on in Thomas and Buchman halls, and the present condition—the eleven magnificent structures which adorn the grounds. He was both witty and humorous in allusions to classmates, but told of the obligation they feel toward the board of control, through which body and by the wise counsel of their beloved president, Dr. Murphy, the purposes of the Buckman bill have and are being realized.

Miss Perrenot a Pianist of Note
Miss Carol Perrenot, a charming and popular winter visitor to Ocala a few years ago, the guest of Miss Mary Burford, will return to the city in July or August to again visit Miss Burford. Since here, Miss Perrenot has taken a degree in music from the Woman's State College and has been for the past two years a member of the faculty of the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music. On May 15 Miss Perrenot made a signal success in her artist recital in Cincinnati and of the event a Pensacola exchange makes the following mention, which will be of deep interest to her many Ocala friends:

Several years ago Carol Perrenot, then a small girl of great musical talent, visited in Pensacola and scores of people were charmed at her exquisite playing, which came to her as a natural gift, for she played entirely without notes.

With much painstaking study this talent grew until it amounted almost to genius and today Carol Perrenot is a name which Florida and especially Santa Rosa county, for Bagdad claims this gifted girl as her own, is proud to acknowledge.

Miss Bertha Bauer, director of the Cincinnati Conservatory writes of the occasion as follows:

"The performance was an exquisite one and was enjoyed by not only a splendid audience but also by the teaching force of the conservatory where she was present. It was a most interesting recital from the beautiful arrangement of the program to its splendid rendition and there was nothing but pleasure on the part of all of us who are so thoroughly interested in her progress.

"M. Bohlmann was overjoyed and so enthusiastic that he is already planning splendid things for next year. I wish you could have seen Miss Perrenot, she looked like a dainty bit of Dresden, and played with such style and poise as to command the admiration from the very beginning."

The following press notices are from the Cincinnati papers, the Cincinnati Enquirer and the Commercial Tribune:

"Carol Perrenot's pianoforte recital attracted a brilliant audience to the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music last Saturday evening. Miss Perrenot is a pupil of Theodore Bohlmann and her studies under this distinguished pedagogue have developed her into a young pianist of decided capability. She disclosed the fact that she has grace and style, both in her mental conceptions of the compositions under consideration and in presenting these in public. She presented a brilliant program, comprised of a number of works not often heard and was very good in her interpretations. Of particular interest was the Bach concerto for two pianos with string orchestra accompaniments, in which she was joined by Inez Gill. The Chopin-Nicodé 'Allegro de Concert' proved a delightful vehicle for her graceful manner of playing and brought the recital to a very satisfactory close."

"A pianoforte recital of much merit was given at the Conservatory of Music last Saturday evening when Mr. Theodore Bohlmann presented his pupil, Miss Carol Perrenot, a pianist who has been well schooled in technique and musical study, but her stately deportment and personal appearance at the piano will always count much toward successful public work. Grace, refinement, and genuine musical expression adorned her offerings throughout the program. She was assisted by Miss Inez Gill and strings in a very satisfying presentation of the Bach Concerto for two pianos, which she followed with the Gregg Ballade, two groups of soil, and, as a brilliant closing number Chopin's 'Allegro de Concert' for piano and orchestra. She was much applauded by a large audience."

Mrs. Jack Camp and son Henry are spending this week at Tybee Beach, near Savannah, visiting Mr. Camp's sister, Mrs. George Armstrong.

Dr. and Mrs. H. W. Henry and Mrs. D. S. Woodrow of Lake Weir, were among the out of town shoppers today.

Celery a la Creme.
WASH and trim two heads of celery, removing the outside stringy stalks. Place the celery in a pan of cold water and bring to the boiling point. Boil for five minutes, then drain and add to the celery enough milk and water to cover. Simmer gently until the celery is tender, adding also one small onion sliced and some sprigs of parsley, marjoram and thyme. Dish the celery and thicken the milk with the flour; add one ounce of butter, some salt and pepper and pour over the celery. Sprinkle with chopped parsley and serve very hot.

Scalloped Onions.
Boil three large onions until just tender, drain them and slice them thinly in rings. Butter thickly some scallop shells and sprinkle with breadcrumbs. Place a layer of sliced onion in the shells, sprinkle with crumbs, and so on until the shells are well piled up, the last layer to be breadcrumbs. On these place some pieces of butter. Put into the oven for about twenty minutes until nicely browned on top. Serve hot in the shells.

Cut two carrots into small strips and a turnip into small cubes. Boil these together for fifteen to twenty minutes in salted water. Drain and stir them into a half pint of white sauce. Dish in a hot tureen and sprinkle with a little chopped parsley.

Browned Turnips.
Peel and cut a half dozen small turnips into squares and boil these in some salted water until tender without being broken at all. Heat one ounce of butter and when quite hot add a half teaspoonful of sugar. Fry the turnips until nicely browned. Sprinkle with pepper and salt and serve them in a hot tureen with roast mutton.

Parsnip Croquettes.
Mash three boiled parsnips when they are parboiled by passing them through a sieve. Season with salt and pepper, add one tablespoonful of flour and an egg. Form into flat cakes and coat with egg and crumbs. Fry in deep fat and drain. Garnish with parsley.

Potato Chips.
Peel and cut a half dozen potatoes into chips and place them in cold water. Heat some fat until smoking. Dry the chips and place them in the frying basket. Lower them gently and slowly into the fat and fry until the fat is chilled. Remove the basket and repeat the fat, then lower the chips a second time and fry until a golden brown and nicely crisped.
